

Invitation

Aquatic Asia

March 12th, 2015

Bitec, Bangkok, Thailand

Safe Fish!

Internationally renowned speakers will present and discuss their ideas on how consumer demand drives sustainable aquaculture.

The program is proudly sponsored by

Programm

Aquatic Asia Seminar

March 12th, 2015

Bitec, Bangkok, Thailand

- 11:00 Registration
- 12:00 Kurt Wegleitner, MD ADDCON GmbH:
Welcome and Opening statement:
Safe Fish! Consumer demand drives sustainable aquaculture
- 12:20 Prof. Wing-Keong Ng, Fish Nutrition Laboratory, School of Biological Sciences, Universiti Sains Malaysia:
Are there functional feed additives to allow sustainable shrimp aquaculture in Asia?
- 13:00 Dr. Tobias Steiner, R&D Manager Phytobiotics Futterzusatzstoffe GmbH:
PhytoGENICS – definition, mode of action and application in aquaculture
- 13:40 Discussion followed by coffee break
- 14:30 Dr. Maria L. Cuvin-Aralar; Binangonan Freshwater Station, SEAFDEC-AQD:
Can we formulate for sustainable aquaculture in Asia?
- 15:00 Dr. Prakan Chiarahkhongman, Charoen Pokphand Group:
The use of Beta-Glucans in Asian aquaculture
- 15:30 Discussion
- 15:45 Conrado U. Bulanlagui; Independent Consultant:
Producing safe feed for fish and shrimp
- 16:15 Dr. Christian Lückstädt, Technical Director ADDCON GmbH:
Dietary organic acids ensure health and safety in tropical aquaculture
- 16:45 Discussion
- 17:00 Podium discussion and closing
- 18:00 till 20:00 Reception "Safe Fish!"

